Well, at high levels you need to "buy" techs from other civilizations, because they have HUGE bonus over you. Also you need to master the luxury stuff or it is over. Basically: you need to expand very quickly at the beginning and continue to produce cities following a scheme (example, EVERY 2 or 3 squares).

Normally the game would not allow the player to speed up the building of Wonders through hurry methods such as pay citizens and force labour. But it is possible to get around this by first selecting a building option (preferably one with a high production cost), speed up that project using a hurry method, then switch to the Wonder of your choice.
